Joel Avery
Andrew Danielson
Tabark Kambal
Gabriel Pedraza Torres
CSD 460 - Software Development CAPSTONE

Gabriel Pedraza Torres: Relative Test #1

Usability:

1.1 How would you rate the overall ease of use of the website?

- Everything was pretty straightforward to find and consistently labeled. If you really wanted to, check that the formatting is the same but it's all self-explanatory at first glance.

1.2 Were you able to navigate through the different sections of the website without any difficulty?

- Like before, there are plenty of places that I can move around and are consistently labeled. Straightforward and efficient.

1.3 Were there any features or functions that were confusing or difficult to use?

- All was self-explanatory and if not, it instructed me on what was missing.

Functionality:

2.1 Did you encounter any bugs, errors, or technical issues while using the website?

- Things seemed to run smoothly and fast. Things led to where they said they would lead to.

2.2 Were all the intended features and functionalities working as expected?

- Yep! All worked as far as I tried going.

2.3 Were there any specific tasks or actions that you found challenging to perform on the website?

- Navigating was easy and inputting information was also easy.

Design and Layout:

3.1 How would you describe the visual appeal of the website?

- Everything looked consistent for the most part. The layout needs some more consistency between the pages to make it look more even but overall, it feels very earthy and outdoorsy.

3.2 Did the layout of the website make it easy for you to find the information you were looking for?

- Yes, it was available in most places I looked, the option for where to go.

3.3 Were the colors, fonts, and overall design aesthetic appealing to you?

- Yep! I really liked the pictures that were used. I would just make it more even between the pages to match a specific type of clutter or minimalism.

Performance:
4.1 How fast did the website pages load for you?

- They loaded fast and correctly.

4.2 Did you experience any lag or delays during your interaction with the website?

- None at all so far.

4.3 Were there any specific devices or browsers where you encountered performance issues?

- None, I looked though it on a windows desktop in google chrome.

Content and Messaging:
5.1 Did you find the content on the website informative and relevant to your needs?

- Yep! Reminds me of Colorado in terms of outdoor stuff.

5.2 Were there any areas where you felt the content was lacking or could be improved?

-Things were good! Just needs a signature consistency between everything but all looked good.

5.3 Did you clearly understand the messaging and purpose of the website?

- Yep! Outdoor trip to a marina in a cozy lodge.